General information

Article number : 1PX22190 SCX.design L17 VacPouch vacuum bag

Description : Travel lighter and smarter with this innovative vacuum bag, featuring an integrated system that compresses clothing and other items in seconds. Simply press and hold the button beneath the cap for two seconds to activate the vacuum function, which efficiently expels air and reduces volume. Press the button again to stop suction and close the cap securely. When the battery is low, recharge via the USB-C port - an indicator light turns red while charging. Made from durable, waterproof fabric, the bag is built to last. Includes custom branding on the metal plate, a polyester storage pouch, and a 3-year guarantee. Polyester.
